Dear Hugh, -

Matt has asked me to write you because he says that for two years he has been trying to answer your letter, and has never gotten to it!

First of all, we both want to apologize to you and Mrs. Dingley for being so very tardy with our replies. We are at present, you see, the way we are situated out here in the woods, it is impossible for us to get anything of the kind, unless we go up to San Francisco and unfortunately Matt is not able to get away very often. However, we went up unexpectedly last Saturday, so that before long, you will have the material evidence that we did think of you.

I've forgotten Hugh, when Matt told me that he wrote you, so I'm at a loss to know if you know what he is doing? Briefly, he is work -

Dear Hugh,

Just a note to tell you how lovely it is I think about you and Nora. I only met her once and that was in Lancaster one time, but I thought then she was one of the cutest and most

Deers,

When will you be home?

The plans are all made for a dance in your honor the evening of Friday, July 4th. The only question is whether you will be here. In order that I may know whether to go ahead will you please telegraph either yes or no as soon as you get this. Yes will mean that you will be here in time to be rested and be ready for the fray. No, of course, contrariwise. We're glad you're having such a heavenly time. I knew you would.

lots and lots of love,

MRS. HENRY C. QUIGLEY
BELLEFONTE, PA.

Parents —

I wonder if anyone has told you of the beautiful rainbow that appeared back of the Yis Club just after you drove away. — a brilliant clear rainbow which we all saw and exclaimed about for some time after you had gone — wasn't that fine? — Don't remember having seen one for a long time before that - it must mean the very best for you - I'm so glad you are going to Worcester - The train from Lancaster is due to arrive tomorrow - we are all excited over it - and will take the very best care of everything - the trunk shall be unpacked and the dresses hung up - and the silver carefully guarded, and all done as it should be - Much love and the best wishes for a happy time everywhere - Mother.

Your neighbors, the Taylors, have gone away for the summer - at least Mrs Taylor and the children - so you will have everything to yourself until September - I think that is rather nice -

Mr Hugh Quigley.

Mr Hugh Quigley.

Dear Friend.

Your invitation came as a pleasant surprise and we regret very much that it will be impossible for us to be present the 21st if our children were not so small we could drive over but we tried one long trip with them and it was not a success so on their account we will have to deny ourselves the pleasure of hearing you say

"I will" to the one you have chosen for a life partner.
Hugh. we are sending you a little token of our regard and in the absence of ~~that~~ address of your fiancée we are writing to you and will ask you kindly to make an explanation for our doing so, but I know Lancaster is a large city and the absence of a street address might cause the loss of a package.

If you are near us at any time we will be very glad to have you come and see us and while you know we are plain people there will be a welcome for you and the latch string is always out.

Mrs Campbell joins me in best wishes for a long and happy union with the one you have chosen.

sincerely your friend R N Campbell.

ONTARIO W.C.T.U. MEMBERS CONVINCED THAT MAH JONG IS POTENT INFLUENCE FOR EVIL

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., Oct. 2—

(Star Special) — Whereas the testimony of Missionaries and of native Chinese of good standing warns against the devastating moral effects of the game of Mah Jong, therefore,

Resolved that we urge women of the W.C.T.U. and sister societies to refrain from its use and to discourage the learning of this alluring but dangerous game, Mah Jong.

This is one of the recommendations in the report of the resolutions committee presented this morning at the convention of the Ontario W.C.T.U.

Another resolution deplors the growing tendency to engage in games and pleasures on the Lord's Day.

The committee also recommend that alcohol be included in the Drug Act as a narcotic drug. It was also recommended that Municipal Councils be urged to place more restrictions on dance halls, as to hours, etc., because the unregulated dance hall had too often proved to be a moral plague spot, and the late hours, introduction of liquor and the general atmosphere of unrestraint have been the undoing of many.

Mrs. Will Pugsley, of Toronto, in her presidential address, attacked the Moderation League and others who are trying to defeat the Ontario Temperance Act.

DROWNED IN STE. ANNE.

QUEBEC, Oct. 2. — (Star Special)

—E. Martel, son of John Martel was drowned this morning in the Ste. Anne River near Ste. Anne de Beaupre. He was in a canoe with a man named Genest, when the canoe upturned, Genest managed to reach the shore. The victim was 20 years of age, and married two months.

SHANGHAI, Oct. 2. — (Associated Press.) — Two spies, employed by the Kiangsu forces, attempting to take Shanghai, were shot to death today by Chekiang troops as they fled from the burning town of Lotien, 10 miles north of here. Letters found on the spies, Chekiang headquarters announced, revealed instructions to burn Shanghai.

on his head made two short centre and he played the game of and the only other hero was tioning was Solemn John Wa. who ambled nonchalantly and sleepily from the bull pen in the ninth with the bases full of Senators and one out, and retired the side in a few minutes.

Still, the Giants won and the game goes into the records as their second victory of the series, giving them a 2 to 1 edge on Washington. The Senators are in a bad plight. They must win tomorrow or virtually concede defeat. John McGraw can afford to experiment with Virgil Barres, and Bucky Harris will be forced to gamble with somebody else than Walter Johnson, who pitched twelve hard innings Saturday, and is not quite ready yet.

"PECK" PULLED TENDON.

Besides, Washington lost Roger Peckinpaugh today, and their cup of woe is running over. How long the great hero of Sunday's game will be out is a question, but he spent two hours this afternoon with his left leg packed in ice. In the long run the Sunday victory may be a costly one, for it was while he was sprinting to first base after driving the winning run across that the veteran shortstop pulled a tendon in his leg.

With characteristic gameness, he tried to play today, but he lasted only two innings and a fraction. In the third Oswald Bluege, the third baseman, moved to short and Ralph Miller, who began life humbly as a Phillie, went to third, and Peck went to the club house. Manager Harris was dubious after the game whether Peck would get another chance to beat the Giants this series.

There was no greater tribute to the raw, sheer courage of the Senators than their reaction to this blow of fate. Many another team would have given up the ghost, particularly since Fred Firpo Marberry, another hero of the Sabbath, was giving a sad exhibition in the box. The Giants were three runs ahead then and playing on their own field, but the Senators, fighting ahead step by step, had the satisfaction of bringing more gray hairs to the gray head of John McGraw in the ninth.

HOME FANS CHEERED VISITORS

It was Washington's doughty spirit probably which accounted for the attitude of the crowd. From the very beginning a large section had been rooting for the visitors. After Peckinpaugh went out, the Senators were even more appealing. In the fourth, eighth and ninth, when the Nationals rallied their strongest,

The Giants scored again in the third, Kelly crossing the plate on his single, Terry's safe blow and a double play which checked further tallying, but Marberry was replaced by a pinch hitter in the Senators' fourth inning sortie.

The Giants steadily added to their lead as Harris shifted his boxmen in quick succession. Ryan's homer was made off Russell, Marberry's successor who also was in the box in the ninth when Miller let Gowdy's sharp blow through his legs, and the backstop tallied on Ryan's sacrifice and Lindstrom's double. Martina, the third hurler, got through the seventh without damage but Speece, the fourth and last, was found for three hits and one run in the eighth.

WHITE SOX RETAIN CHICAGO LAURELS

American League Tailenders Took City Championship Series From Cubs

Chicago, Oct. 6.—The White Sox remain Chicago champions, even if they did finish last in the 1924 American League race. Bowling over the Cubs today, 5 to 3, the American League nine, led by Johnny Evers, retained their city title won last year from the National Leaguers after a lapse of twelve months.

It was the sixth game of the series, the Cubs having captured the first and fifth combats solely on the pitching of Grover Alexander. Hollis Thurston and Ted Lyons hurled the Sox to victory today.

It was Washington's doughty spirit probably which accounted for the attitude of the crowd. From the very beginning a large section had been rooting for the visitors. After Peckinpaugh went out, the Senators were even more appealing. In the fourth, eighth and ninth, when the Nationals rallied their strongest, thousands of spectators broke out in concerted clapping and shouting. At Washington, under similar circumstances, this would be sacrilege and profanation, but in New York it was sportsmanship.

The scandal, too, provided an undertone of sentiment for Washington—more than it did even in the capital. You heard no Washington fan shout, "Where's Jimmy O'Connell?" when the batteries were being announced or nay District of Columbia enthusiast yell, "Put Cozey Dolan on the coaching line," but they yelled that today—not many, but too many.

It was a New York crowd, of course, and a popular referendum would have favored the Giants. But vivid enthusiasm and bitter partisanship were missing. People accounted for that last year by saying two New York clubs were playing, but the real explanation now seems to be that local fandom, although friendly and fairly loyal, has grown above world series hurrahing.

Two of the three startling defensive plays Frisch pulled, all of them, curiously enough, at the expense of "Goose" Goslin, turned the Senators back, when they were most dangerous. The first of these, and the Chicago, Oct. 6.—The White Sox remain Chicago champions, even if they did finish last in the 1924 American League race. Bowling over the Cubs today, 5 to 3, the American League nine, led by Johnny Evers, retained their city title won last year from the National Leaguers after a lapse of twelve months.

It was the sixth game of the series, the Cubs having captured the first and fifth combats solely on the pitching of Grover Alexander. Hollis Thurston and Ted Lyons hurled the Sox to victory today.

I Home -

Mar. 15 - 22

Dear Ding, -

Your letter, dated Feb. 23, received & sure was glad to hear from you.
Couldn't figure out, why you had failed to answer my letter, but I was sure glad to hear from you this time.
"Hold em! W. + J.!!! WOW! ^WJEFF!!

I am still loafing around Hack & drawing salary from the Leonard people until they decide what they want to do.
I don't just know, what is holding them up, but wish they would hurry up & start something. I am supposed to go down there in charge, as far as I know, but don't know a thing outside of that. If I have any influence or say-so, not assumed, we will surely have a union in Columbia & shake the old dice-box, once more." And Nature Grand! He ought to know something before long, now, with Spring opening up. Right here, old man, I want to congratulate you on your petitions having gone through, & now, since you have started, keep going, as long & as fast, as your time & money hold out; I will tell you the same.

I had a short letter from Stokes since his return, but haven't seen him yet. Also had a line from Hedrick.

Now this covers about everything at this time & I will advise you of any later developments -

Will close now, with very best regards - Sincerely yours

I hear that both Bragdon & Bishop Bill Gibson have gone to Colombia.

About the good boat - "Atlantis" - enroute up the Magdalena -

Dear Sir, -

I warned if you ain't "about the tightest & most stingy dealer that I know!!!"

Inclosing a Printing Card, with your name signed, & the envelope marked "Please Forward" - Sir! but you have a lot of nerve! What's the matter, if you haven't any stationery or ink, why don't you do like myself, use that of the Company! I could tell you, a hell-of-a-sight better than I can write you.

I arrived here the first of the year & have been from Hell to Breakfast here, in Colombia. Have been doing a lot of exploratory work & have covered a lot of territory & moved pretty rapidly, too. Just finished a trip away down the coast, to some Panama in a little coast boat; was up both, the Sinu & Atrato River - Got back to Cartagena on Saturday night; flew over to Biquilla by plane on Monday, & here it is, the third day & am on my way to Puerto Wilches, with about twenty tons of material, that I want to arrange for storage at Wilches & then on up the river to Bogota -

This is my second trip up the river in a couple of months & the is very bad & low, now - Am. feeling quite fit & enjoying this new territory & exploration work immensely - We have an out-fit in Bigulla that was sent to France originally but was never used & thus shipped it over here on the French Boat -

The effort to drill a well on our Concessions, in Lack of Wilches, but it will be some time, before we can get our material money back there - It is about a half a day on mule, from the location to Puerto Santos -

Had a fine three day visit at Barranca, the Tropical Oil Co. Concessions; they have a mighty fine place -

I guess John Bates is finished & I hear that Clarke is in charge; if I ever get time & going down to see, just what they are doing - I hear that they have a very small production & have to pump it - None of the other companies in here have been able to make a showing -

O'Brien, who came down here with me, is in N.Y. making his report to Leonard & I am just looking over some prospects - Ben Hooper, is here & there, having charge for the Standard Oil of California in Ecuador, Colombia & Venezuela -

Now, old Ben, loosen up & let me hear from you & what you are doing & all - I have heard from both Campbell & Street - don't see why you can't write -

Wishing you the best you wish yourself -
